

Stratford Chapter Dinner Presentation

Please join the Stratford Chapter of the VFS in welcoming Kishore Tenneti, – Technical Fellow, Sikorsky, a Lockheed Martin Co.

Additive Manufacturing at Sikorsky

At Sikorsky, we pioneer solutions that enhance the customer value proposition of our products and improve the efficiencies of our operations. Manufacturing is a significant portion of our business operations and over the past 9 years, we have been at the forefront of developing & implementing Additive Manufacturing technologies to realize cost and schedule benefits while improving performance of our products. This presentation is an overview of Additive Manufacturing efforts at Sikorsky, our achievements, and our plans for the future of this exciting technology.
